TOO MANY HUSBANDS

Madame Cruz Torres
Has Troubles of Her Own.

"He is a lie if he say that! He is not a man!"

Thus Madame Cruz Torres, who has a number of names besides that, characterized her second husband before United States District Court Commissioner Maling yesterday. Also, she said a great many other things about him, none of which were as nice as the things quoted.

Madame Torres was on trial for bigamy, with both husbands and both marriage certificates in court, and the second husband, who considered himself aggrieved, was telling United States District Attorney Breckons about it. Abelino Mercadeo, this man's name was, and because he continued to live with the woman after he found out that she had another husband living, he will be held to answer on a pretty serious charge himself. And his knowledge of that fact did not put him in any better humor.

According to the story, the woman had the marrying habit. Maybe she needn't have had, but that is neither here nor there. She is from Porto Rico. Her first husband, Cerapio Bordo Moroa, seems to have been the favorite, and still she married the other, as both men testified and as the woman admitted and the marriage certificates showed. Mercadeo testified that he did not know, for a year and a half after marriage, that the woman was the wife of another man. And he felt badly about it.

Certainly he felt badly and showed it when the woman advanced on him as he sat on the witness stand and told him what she thought of him. She had more command of language than of her tongue. She went on the stand after that herself, and said that he had known she was married and had compelled her, by threats to kill her, to marry him, and afterwards to live with him.

"That other man good to me," she said, pointing to her first husband. "He treat me like my own father. But that Abelino is a lie."

She was held to answer with bail fixed at $1000, and she again showed, well, impatience, when this was interpreted to her. "I have not a thousand dollars," she said. "I have not a cent. And I do not like the law in this country. I do not get married, and they arrest me. Then I marry two men, and they arrest me again. I do not understand these kind laws."

JAILOR MAYBE TOO
HOLD HIS PLACE

"Why," said High Sheriff Henry, who came back from the big island yesterday, "I will not remove Jailor Maybe from his position at Hilo. He was indicted by the grand jury, it is true, but I investigated the case pretty thoroughly, and I could not see much of anything in the matter. The charge was that Maybe struck a prisoner. Now, you understand, I do not approve of cruelty to prisoners. I believe in holding strictly to the prison rules, and the law. But in the case of Maybe it seems that it was a matter of the officer defending himself. That might very well happen in the case of a man dealing with an ugly prisoner. Maybe has been in the service of the government as an officer for fifteen years, and he has the respect and confidence of some of the best men in Hilo. As my own investigation has shown me that there is nothing wrong, I will let his record speak for him and hold him in his place."

MAY EXPECT TO DIE
WITHIN THREE MONTHS

If Mrs. Tono Murakami's statements are to be credited she has just three months in which to prepare to meet her doom, and one Murakami, whether husband or stranger, she does not state, is said to be the Nemesis on her trail.

Mrs. Murakami went to the police station yesterday and swore to a warrant charging Murakami with using threatening language to her, and as a result she fears for her life and asks that Murakami be put under bonds to keep the peace.

Mrs. Murakami says that this is the language used: "Within three months I will kill you; I will not let you live."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
Camp No. 1, U. S. W. V.

Department Hawaii.
Meets every first and third WEDNESDAY at Waverley Hall, at 7:30 p. m. Visiting comrades cordially invited to attend.

H. T. MOORE, Comdr.

H. H. LONG, Adjutant.

JUDGE DOLE
CALLS TERM

Plenty of Work for the Federal District
Court.

Because of the large accumulation of business, Judge Dole yesterday called a special term of the Federal District Court, and issued a venire for twenty-three grand jurors and forty-two trial jurors. The special term will begin on February 12. The order for the new term sets forth that there is much business to be done, and that the court is advised by the United States District Attorney that there are a number of cases which went over from the last term, wherefore the court orders the opening of the special session. The regular term of the court would not have begun until April.

Among other matters that are to come up are the trials of the so-called beef and lumber trust cases. There are also the cases of the men arrested on the transport Sherman for having counterfeit money in their possession, and a number of similar criminal cases.

The list of the grand jurors drawn is as follows:

William Thompson, R. L. Auerbach, W. Fredenberg, Theodore Richards, Arthur C. Alexander, John Clunev, J. C. Gilman, J. W. Girvin, C. R. Collins, H. L. Herbert, C. Nieman, Harry E. Webster, W. W. Harris, F. J. Cross and Willard E. Brown all of Honolulu; J. E. Anderson of Hilo, O. Blackstad of Waimea, Kauai, and G. Kaiser of Honolulu.

The following are the trial jurors summoned: C. A. Decew, David Haughts, S. Ladd, Harold Giles, A. R. Hatfield, A. B. Clark, R. J. Pratt, C. A. Hanneberg, M. Fernandez, John Lane, Z. K. Meyers, R. Dabel, Albert Trask, J. O. Hamerik, J. A. Williams, David O. Underman, J. A. Holt, E. Hanapi, C. Crozier, Isaac Testa, W. Savage, J. C. Quinn, E. C. Chapin, L. L. McCandless, A. S. Kalepou, H. Wagner, E. C. Hobron, J. Fernandez, H. G. Bertelman, J. H. Harrison, Frank Goifrey, H. M. Whitney, J. W. L. McGuire, S. Andrews, F. M. Lewis and S. French of Honolulu; James K. Nakapahi, J. C. Costello, W. Eberling, E. H. Austin and H. E. Kelsey of Hilo; G. Watt of Hana, C. E. Kemper of Kohala; W. Russell Boot and W. G. Scott of Wailuku; H. Elderts of Puna, W. E. Smith of Koloa, Kauai.

BOYS GIVEN CHANCE TO GET THEIR FREEDOM

Jos Afong, Alfred Freitas, Manuel Tishero and Solomon Parker, boys who had been arrested for gambling, were each sentenced to a year's detention in the Reform School in police court yesterday, with an eight weeks' probation period intervening. Should the young fellows prove themselves worthy during this time, according to the reports of the probation officers, the sentences will not be carried out.

FOUNDED IN HONOUR.

No doubt you have seen in the papers such announcements as this concerning some medicine or other: "If, on trial, you write that this medicine has done you no good we will refund your money."—Now, we have never had reason to speak in that way concerning the remedy named in this article. In a trade nobody has ever complained that our medicine has failed, or asked for the return of his money. The public never grumbles at honestly and skillfully made bread, or at a medicine which really and actually does what it was made to do. The foundations of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION are laid in sincerity and honour, the knowledge of which on the part of the people explains its popularity and success. There is nothing to disguise or conceal. It was not dreamed out, or discovered by accident; it was studied out, on the solid principles of applied medical science. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This remedy is praised by all who have employed it in any of the diseases it is recommended to relieve and cure, and is effective from the first dose. In Anemia, Scrofula, Nervous and General Debility, Influenza, La Grippe and Throat and Lung Troubles, it is a specific. Dr. Thos. Hunt Stucky says: "The continued use of it in my practice, convinces me that it is the most palatable, least nauseating, and best preparation now on the market." You can take it with the assurance of getting well. One bottle proves its intrinsic value. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists everywhere.

HOLUALOA PEACEFUL

North Kona Schoolhouse
Trouble Goes Into Court.

"The trouble over the Kona school lands has been carried into court, and everything promises an amicable settlement of the claim," said High Sheriff Henry, who came back yesterday with Deputy Attorney General Prosser from the Big Island. "There is, to be sure, a pretty serious charge against one of the parties in the case. It is a grave matter to draw a pistol on a District Magistrate, even if the gun is not loaded. But there will be no further trouble about the schoolhouse."

"We did not have to use force to get possession of the schoolhouse," went on the High Sheriff. "We merely served the injunction paper issued by Judge Matthewman, and the parties who were holding the house moved out. They have all been charged with riot, having gone to the school and barricaded it and camped there, defying the authorities. But there were no arms shown while we were there, although the evidence shows that there had been a display of arms when they defied the authorities before our arrival. We merely told them that, if they had a claim against the government, a legal claim, it would be paid in the end, and that it was useless to take the law into their own hands. They saw the force of the argument, and yielded."

It seems that there are fourteen charges of riot against North Kona people for taking forcible possession of Hualaloa school. And there is a more serious charge against Jacob Cooper, a well-known citizen, who is alleged to have drawn a revolver upon District Magistrate Clark. The District Judge had gone to the schoolhouse on two occasions to induce those holding possession of the place to leave, and it is alleged left with considerable haste himself when confronted with the revolver. Cooper is held in $1000 bonds in the assault case, and also on two charges of riot, with bonds of $500 in each case. There are likewise two riot charges against Mary H. Ateherly, well known in the district, with bonds of $500 in each case. H. T. Mills is held on two similar charges, with like bond, and there are two charges against Isaac K. Davis. In smaller amounts, J. Alawa, Kelui Makai and J. Kawai are held.

The school is running again, and the title to the property will be settled by a civil suit.

COURT NOTES.

In Judge Lindsay's court yesterday the suit of F. J. Testa vs. J. P. Kahawai et al. was dismissed for lack of prosecution. The suit was begun in 1898, and was for $743.40 claimed to be due for the printing of the old home rule newspaper, Ka Ahaiolono o Hawaii. A verdict was once given for the plaintiff, but it was reversed on appeal.

Judge Lindsay had a kind of field day yesterday, disposing of a number of cases finally.

Yesterday morning Judge Lindsay gave judgment for plaintiff in the assumpsit case of Gehring & Butzke vs. Chin Wo.

A nolle prosequi was entered by County Attorney Douthett yesterday in the gambling cases against Ogawa and Haramoto.

A discontinuance has been filed in the assumpsit suit of the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company against A. McAuton.

Judge De Bolt has appointed W. H. Chamberlain, R. I. Mead and A. H. Smith appraisers of the estate of Annie Isabella Forbes.

Judge Lindsay has overruled the motion for a new trial made by the plaintiff in the ejectment suit of Kalamakee vs. Wharton. The defendant in this case was the father of the little boy who was murdered, Simeon Wharton, and was in court in attendance on this case when the fiend Johnson enticed the child from home and killed him.

A decree of divorce has been granted by Judge Lindsay to Sarah Kupua from Lowell Kupua on the ground of failure to provide.

The defendant in the assumpsit case of Allen & Robinson vs. the Sanitary Steam Laundry Company has confessed judgment in accordance with the terms of the complaint.

Defendant in the assumpsit case of W. H. Heilbron vs. David Kawananaoka has withdrawn his appeal from judgment entered in the District Court. Decree of foreclosure of mortgage in the case of W. O. Smith vs. Mary J. Montana has been entered by Judge Lindsay.

The administrator of the estate of Ng Fong, deceased, has filed his final accounting and will be discharged upon payment into the Circuit Court of the amount shown to be remaining in his hands.

In the case of the Territory of Hawaii, by Superintendent of Public Works Holloway, vs. Wm. McCandless et al., which is a suit to abate a nuisance and asking for an injunction, Judge Lindsay yesterday overruled the demurrer of defendants, and gave them ten days to answer.

Satisfaction of judgment was filed in Judge Lindsay's court yesterday in the case of Fred Harrison vs. F. E. Richardson, and the case was ordered stricken from the calendar.

The divorce case of Minnie K. Buzzell vs. Percy O. Buzzell was finally disposed of by Judge Lindsay yesterday, a decree being granted to plaintiff on the ground of extreme cruelty. There was no order to pay alimony, but one of the attorneys stated, in a kind of off-hand way and not officially, that the couple had adjusted their financial differences out of court.
